EXHIBIT D - INDIVIDUAL DEBTOR'S STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH CREDIT COUNSELING REQUIREMENT

Warning: You must be able to check truthfully one of the five statements regarding credit counseling listed below. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file a bankruptcy case, and the court can dismiss any case you do file. If that happens, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors will be able to resume collection activities against you. If your case is dismissed and you file another bankruptcy case later, you may be required to pay a second filing fee and you may have to take extra steps to stop creditors' collection activities.

Every individual debtor must file this Exhibit D. If a joint petition is filed, each spouse must complete and file a separate Exhibit D. Check one of the five statements below and attach any documents as directed.

☒ 1. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, and I have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. Attach a copy of the certificate and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency.

☐ 2. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, but I do not have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. You must file a copy of a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to you and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency no later than 14 days after your bankruptcy case is filed.

☐ 3. I certify that I requested credit counseling services from an approved agency but was unable to obtain the services during the seven days from the time I made my request, and the following exigent circumstances merit a temporary waiver of the credit counseling requirement so I can file my bankruptcy case now. [Summarize exigent circumstances here.] _____

If your certification is satisfactory to the court, you must still obtain the credit counseling briefing within the first 30 days after you file your bankruptcy petition and promptly file a certificate from the agency that provided the counseling, together with a copy of any debt management plan developed through the agency. Failure to fulfill these requirements may result in dismissal of your case. Any extension of the 30-day deadline can be granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days. Your case may also be dismissed if the court is not satisfied with your reasons for filing your bankruptcy case without first receiving a credit counseling briefing.

☐ 4. I am not required to receive a credit counseling briefing because of: [Check the applicable statement.] [Must be accompanied by a motion for determination by the court.]

☐ Incapacity. (Defined in 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(4) as impaired by reason of mental illness or mental deficiency so as to be incapable of realizing and making rational decisions with respect to financial responsibilities.);

☐ 5. The United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator has determined that the credit counseling requirement of 11 U.S.C. § 109(h) does not apply in this district.

AGREEMENT FOR REPRESENTATION,
DISCLOSURE OF COMPENSATION UNDER 11 USC 329 AND BANKRUPTCY RULE 2016 (b)

1. I certify that I am the attorney for the above named debtors and that the compensation paid or agreed to be paid to me for services rendered or to be rendered on behalf of the debtors in, or in connection with a case under title 11 of the United States Code, such payment or agreement having been made after one year before the date of the filing of the petition, is as follows:

Amount paid prior to filing	$0.00	Presumptive fee to be included for payment in the plan	$4,000.00 (This amount may be modified by motion and notice during the plan not to exceed the presumptive fee approved at the time of the motion).
Amount of payment applied to filing fee	$0.00	Additional fees to be paid in excess of the presumptive fee:	Hourly charges for services excluded from the presumptive fee. Also additional fees may be applied for by motion if the total fee earned exceeds the fee awarded limited to the presumptive fee allowed at the time of application.
Amount of payment applied to attorney fee	$0.00	Rates  per hour: (billed in .1hr increments)
Amount in trust subject to court approval of fee applications	$0.00	J. Robert Harlan Galen Pierce Keith Slocum Paralegal	$300.00/ hour $200.00/ hour $285.00/ hour $ 90.00/ hour

* Except where plan completion, dismissal, or conversion to ch7 is eminent

** Rates are subject to review on January 1 each calendar year and established based upon rates approved by the Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of Tennessee in similar cases.

2. For the agreed upon fee based upon the above hourly rates, J. Robert Harlan, agrees to use reasonable best efforts to preform all regular and routine services to be rendered in this Chapter 13 proceeding, which include but are not limited to the following: meeting and counseling with the debtor to review the debtor's assets, liabilities, income, and expenses and concerning the nature and effect of Chapter 13 bankruptcy. Preparation and filing of statements and schedules, attendance at the meeting of creditors and confirmation hearing, preparation of a defense in the event of a motion to dismiss or motion for relief from stay, preparation of motions by debtor to amend the plan, add creditors, or suspend payments, and motions to incur credit or to buy or sell property of the estate, or re-finance secured loans. Where necessary, motions to avoid liens under 11 USC 522 will be prepared and filed. Other services are also contemplated prior to and during the Chapter 13 case which will assist the debtors to fully understand the rights and responsibilities of a Chapter 13 debtor such as and explanation of how administrative costs and fees are to be paid, advice as to the requirements for casualty loss insurance for secured loans, the requirements for attendance at creditor meetings, and advice concerning plan payment requirements.
3. The debtors have acknowledged that matters may arise in connection with the bankruptcy case which are not included in the regular and routine services described above. The attorney may be asked to perform services associated with representing debtors in such matters. Charges for such additional services will be assessed at the standard hourly rate for the particular attorney working on the case, and shall be billed periodically as stated above. The Debtors have been advised that these charges must be submitted to the Bankruptcy Court for approval. Such services would include, but not limited to, attendance at depositions or Rule 2004 Examinations and other pretrial hearings in regard to adversary proceedings concerning discharge of debt, research, preparation of briefs, preparation for trial, and court time at trial in such litigated matters placed on an adversary track.

4. The debtors acknowledge that all determinations as to the existence or absence of property liens is based solely on information provided by the debtors and no independent search of the register's offices has been conducted to exclude the possibility of additional property liens such as judgement liens, artisans liens, marital liens, or tax liens. The debtors acknowledge that unknown or undisclosed liens which are not provided for in the plan may survive the completed bankruptcy case and may impair title to property. The debtors acknowledge that this agreement does not include a lien search or property record search as would be conducted to buy or sell real estate. If such a search is desired by debtors then debtors shall arrange and pay for the same from debtors separate funds. Appraisal information is not separately verified and the values of debtors' assets may be based on unconfirmed sources. If the value of property is of special importance, the debtors agree to arrange necessary appraisal services and pay to cost of the same.
5. The debtors have acknowledged that matters may arise in connection with the bankruptcy case which require, for resolution, a determination of a substantive legal issue which is separate from and not normally considered part of a bankruptcy case such as a determination of support in domestic court, tax liability matters in tax court, or defense of liability of a tort claim. This agreement does not extend to representation in non-bankruptcy courts or preparation of substantive defenses in non-bankruptcy areas of law for which outside counsel may be obtained, if desired, at the debtor's separate expense. In the event separate counsel is obtained for a hearing in bankruptcy court, J. Robert Harlan will assist in procedural matters to present the issue in Bankruptcy court.
6. J. Robert Harlan has not agreed to share this compensation with any other person.
7. The debtors have acknowledged that the fees charged and approved by the court for services performed and work done in the case will be the responsibility of the debtors, jointly and severally, until such time as the full amount shall have been paid from the bankruptcy trustee disbursements. In the event the case is dismissed by order of the Bankruptcy Court prior to the entire balance of fees having been paid then the debtors agree to immediately pay the balance to J. Robert Harlan and that the entire remaining amount thereof shall be immediately due and payable. Thereafter, any unpaid portion of the fees shall accrue interest at the rate of 1.5% per month computed on the unpaid balance. If placed for collection we agree to pay all costs of collection including reasonable attorney fees.
8. By signing below, we acknowledge that we have received a copy of this disclosure and agree to its terms which have been fully and satisfactorily explained.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
MIDDLE DISTRICT OF TENNESSEE

NOTICE TO CONSUMER DEBTOR(S) UNDER § 342(b)
OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

In accordance with § 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice to individuals with primarily consumer debts: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General may examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case.

You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

Notices from the bankruptcy court are sent to the mailing address you list on your bankruptcy petition. In order to ensure that you receive information about events concerning your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address. If you are filing a joint case (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly-addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation ($245 filing fee, $46 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total Fee $306)

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a "means test" designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, the United States trustee (or bankruptcy administrator), the trustee, or creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if a creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($235 filing fee, $46 administrative fee: Total fee $281)

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11: Reorganization ($1000 filing fee, $46 administrative fee: Total fee $1046)

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman ($200 filing fee, $46 administrative fee: Total fee $246)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court. The documents and the deadlines for filing them are listed on Form B200, which is posted at http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy\_forms.html#procedure.
